Advice and Guidance

Advice on delivering remote education safely can be found in the following documents:

- safe remote learning, published by SWGfL
- online safety and safeguarding, published by LGfL, which covers safe remote learning
- the National Cyber Security Centre, which includes which video conference service is right for you and using video conferencing services securely
- safeguarding and remote education during coronavirus \(COVID-19\)
- annex C of keeping children safe in education

Online Safety

Foreland Fields School believes that online safety (e-Safety) is an essential element of safeguarding children and adults in the digital world, when using technology such as computers, mobile phones or games consoles. Foreland Fields School recognises that the needs of the pupils within its community make this group of young people especially vulnerable when they are online.

Foreland Fields School also identifies that with this there is a clear duty to ensure that children are protected from potential harm online.

For the purposes of this guidance, the term 'pupil' covers all pupils and students currently on roll at Foreland Fields School

Rationale

In the event of a school closure, either partial or full, Foreland Fields School is committed to providing continuity of education to its pupils and will do so through a process of resources sent home and remote (online) learning. In some cases, and where it is safe to do so, home visits may also take place to support a child in their learning or specific programme. Increased remote learning would apply particularly in a situation in which the school is closed for an extended period of time, but a high proportion of pupils and teachers are healthy, and able to work as normal from home.

This policy does not apply in the event of short-term school closures (e.g. as a result of inclement weather) or a short-term pupil absence. Remote learning may also be appropriate in situations where pupils, in agreement with the school, have a period of absence but are able to work at home. This may apply in cases such as exclusion from school, long term illness or part-time attendance, assuming pupils are able to complete school work at home. Another relevant instance would be if, following an infectious disease outbreak, pupils are self-isolating at home but are not suffering with relevant symptoms. There is no obligation for the school to provide continuity of education to pupils who absent themselves from school, with or without parental permission, in contravention to school or government guidance. This may apply, for example, if parents/carers choose to take pupils on holiday during term time. Similarly, this would apply if parents/carers made the decision, without prior agreement with the school, to absent their daughters from school 'as a precaution', against official guidance, in the event of an outbreak of infectious disease.

Remote Learning for Individual Pupils

Assuming an absence has been agreed with the school, and the pupil in question is healthy enough to work from home, the school will provide work for pupils who are unable to attend in person. If this occurs for an individual pupil, the collation of work and communication with the parent/carer will be coordinated by the pupil's teacher or member of the Senior Leadership Team. Though every case will have its own specifics, a rough guideline for the frequency of communication between school and parent/carer would be once per week. Work will only be provided to pupils in this way if there is an agreed absence lasting more than three working days. If a significant number of pupils are absent from school, but the school remains open, the Headteacher will decide whether the method of remote learning operated will take the form outlined in this policy.

Assuming that a pupil is healthy and well enough to work, they will be expected to participate as fully as possible in the remote learning process, attending relevant live sessions, completing work provided, and submitting any set tasks promptly and to the best of their ability. Pupils and/or their parents/carers will also be expected to read and respond to communication from the school, e.g. an email from a class teacher.

Remote Learning in the Event of Extended School Closure

In the event of an extended school closure, the school will provide continuity of education in the following ways;

- Regular direct instruction from teachers with the ability of pupils and parents/carers to ask questions online via ClassDojo, the school generic email account foreland@foreland.kent.sch.uk or a Teacher's work email account. Please note, personal email accounts must not be used for any kind of communication with parents.
- Teachers will also contact all parents/carers weekly via pre-agreed phone call, ClassDojo or email.
- The setting of work that pupils complete, responses (if relevant) completed electronically or on prepared worksheets. All parents/carers have been asked if they have access to a printer and, if they have, whether they would prefer to have resources sent through the post or electronically. There will be no expectation on parents/carers to print materials.
- Remote live sessions (see section below), The primary platforms the school will use to deliver remote live sessions and, thereby ensure the continuity of education are:
Microsoft Teams: accessed via the relevant app or desktop application, or via the following URL: <https://teams.microsoft.com>.

The extent to which different methods of instruction are employed is likely to be determined by the length of any school closure and the ability of both pupils and teachers to participate in remote learning. The school reserves the right to vary the range of methods used to provide remote learning tasks, feedback and interaction, based on the particular circumstances of any closure and based on our experience.

Remote Live Sessions

Microsoft Teams will be utilised for 'live' sessions. There is an expectation of teachers to carry out some learning sessions in this way which, in most cases, will be delivered through a daily live session. It is recognised that the length and nature of these lives sessions will vary widely to meet the wide range of SEN that pupils at Foreland Fields School have. In addition, the length, frequency and content of these sessions which be dependent on the curriculum pathway each class is following. Microsoft Teams provides a platform that allows for resources to be shared, teachers to instruct the class in person, and pupils to ask questions in 'real-time'. Parents/carers and pupils will be provided with details of sessions, and will be expected to participate in them if they are asked and able to. Live sessions can be particularly helpful as they can help communication, with pupils able to respond to teachers' questions (and ask them) via the conversation functionality. It also ensures that our pupils can keep in contact with their school friends and assists in ensuring that they feel less isolated.

Assessment and Feedback

Assessment Providing timely and helpful feedback is a cornerstone of good teaching and learning, and whilst this may be more challenging with remote learning, teachers will endeavour to provide regular feedback to pupils on their contribution during sessions and their general application to work tasks. Under normal circumstances, not all pieces of work are formally assessed by teachers and this would continue to be the case during remote learning sessions. Given the nature of the tasks, the type of feedback teachers can provide may not have the same format as marking an exercise book.

Teachers are encouraged to ensure, when they set work, that it is designed in such a way that meaningful feedback may be provided. Possible methods may include;

- Direct feedback to pupils/pupils.
- Providing whole class feedback rather than feedback on individual pieces of work – this is an effective way of providing feedback, supported by findings from educational research.
- Using the “Comments” function on Microsoft Teams.
- Sending a direct email / ClassDojo message to pupils and their parents/carers.

If parents/carers, or the pupil themselves, are concerned about the overall workload (e.g. a pupil feels they are overwhelmed or falling behind), these should be directed to the teacher via ClassDojo (private message) or email and the teacher will be in touch.

The school does not expect pupils to have access to any specialist equipment that would usually be provided by the school (e.g. science or art). Teachers will ensure they are able to scan or upload photos of important resources to be used in live sessions.

Evidence for Learning

Parents who have signed up to the Parent Portal on Evidence for Learning will be able to share video and photographic evidence of their child working towards Personal Learning Intentions whilst they are at home. Teachers will be able to view this evidence, add comments and suggest next steps.

Teachers are able to send home learning activities, through the Activity Centre on the Parent Portal. They can upload up to 3 videos with a description of the task and add worksheets and web links to support learning at home.

Expectations of Teachers

Teachers should use their school provided laptops and ensure they have effective home internet connection. If this is not available for any reason, teachers should speak to their line manager (Leaders of Learning). All teachers should pay due care to the nature of tasks set, so that pupils have a range of activities to complete at home and are not exclusively working on a screen. They should ensure that work is differentiated as required for all pupils when setting online tasks. Teachers are responsible for providing constructive feedback to their pupils in a timely manner.

In the event that a teacher is unwell during a period of remote learning, it becomes the responsibility of the Leader of Learning to ensure work is set to her/his classes. Teachers should be available to contact parents/carers if needed, by email or phone (when phoning from personal devices, dialling 141 before the number will ensure the teacher's own number is kept anonymous). On no account should staff share their personal phone number (home or mobile) with parents/carers.

In line with the Staff Behaviour Policy, staff must ensure the following:

- Staff should not use or carry their mobile phones with them whilst working with pupils.
- Mobile phones may not be used by staff during lessons or allocated school time unless pupils are not present and this has been agreed by a member of the school leadership team.
- Mobile phones should not be carried by staff (on their person) but should be kept in a locker or secure location away from children.

If teachers require support with any aspects of remote learning, they are encouraged to consult their Leader of Learning or a member of the Senior Leadership Team.

Unless there are extenuating circumstances, teachers will be expected to be contactable by colleagues, pupils and parents/carers. All communication should take place during usual school hours, with no expectation for colleagues to read or respond to emails after 3.30pm although, in normal practice, responses should be made to electronic messages within one working day. For those who are on part-time contracts, communication is expected only on the days on which they would usually work.

Communication must always occur via official school channels, and not through personal accounts or other websites. Permitted methods are;

- Microsoft Teams
- ClassDojo (Personal Message)
- ClassDojo (Class Message)
- Telephone contact
- Email using school email accounts
- The school generic email account: foreland@foreland.kent.sch.uk. The PA to the Headteacher and Deputies will forward any emails directly to teachers who should respond via one of the methods detailed above.

Teachers should ensure that all of their pupils have the required consents (Acceptable use and use of image) for the remote learning activity. They should also make sure that they have read and understood the Online Safety Policy and follow the guidance contained within it with regards to use of image.

Parents/carers will need to have signed the 'Consent Form for Taking and Using Photos and Videos' in order to take part in Microsoft Teams sessions. They must have indicated that they are happy for their child to take part in Microsoft Team conferencing for educational purposes in order to be included in sessions.

Expectations of Parents/Carers

Parents/carers are expected to support the school in ensuring that pupils are safe when online by:

- Reading, signing and returning the school Acceptable Use Policies, encouraging their children to adhere to them, and adhering to them themselves where appropriate.
- Ensuring all related consents (including Use of Image) are signed and returned.
- Discussing online safety issues with their children, supporting the school in their online safety approaches, and reinforcing appropriate safe online behaviours at home.
- Role modelling safe and appropriate uses of new and emerging technology.
- Identifying changes in behaviour that could indicate that their child is at risk of harm online.
- Seeking help and support from the school, or other appropriate agencies, if they or their child encounters online problems or concerns.
- Contributing to the development of the school/setting online safety policies.
- Using school systems, such as learning platforms, and other network resources, safely and appropriately.
- Taking responsibility for their own awareness and learning in relation to the opportunities and risks posed by new and emerging technologies.

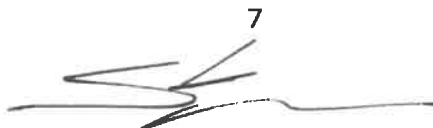

Parents/carers should support Live learning through;

- Ensuring that their child, if well enough, takes part in live learning sessions.
- Ensuring that their child is appropriately supervised online and that appropriate parent controls are implemented.
- Ensuring that their child is dressed appropriately for live sessions.
- Ensuring that their child behaves appropriately during live sessions.

Online Safety Away from School

- All staff will continue to look out for any signs that indicate a child may be at risk online and will report and respond to concerns in line with the Child Protection Policy addendum.
- Where necessary, referrals will be made to LADO, children's social care and as required, the police.
- Pupils are encouraged to report concerns to a member of staff or a trusted adult at home. Where this is not possible, additional support can be accessed online via:

- National Crime Agency Child Exploitation and Online Protection Command (NCA-CEOP): www.ceop.police.uk/safety-centre
- All communication with pupils and parents/carers will take place using school provided or approved communication channels; for example, school provided email accounts, ClassDojo or the School website.
- Any pre-existing relationships or situations which mean this cannot be complied with will be discussed with the DSL.
- Foreland Fields School will ensure any use of online learning tools and systems is in line with privacy and data protection/GDPR requirements.
- When delivering remote learning, staff will:
  - Only use online tools that have been evaluated and agreed by the Senior Leadership Team.
  - Ensure remote learning activities are planned taking pupil needs and technology access into account.
- If remote learning is taking place 'live' using webcams or chat facilities, staff and pupils will ensure a professional environment is maintained. This means:
  - Staff will record the length, time, date and attendance of any online lessons/contact held or made.
  - Live sessions will always involve at least two members of staff.
- Sessions will not be delivered in any 1:1 situation, unless pre-approval has been given by the DSL and/or Headteacher and the session is auditable.
- Parents/Carers and Pupils should be reminded that they should not attempt to record the online lesson.
- Staff will agree online behaviour expectations with pupils at the start of lessons.
- Staff will revisit our acceptable use of technology policy with pupils as necessary.
- All participants will wear suitable dress, use professional language, and ensure backgrounds of videos (live or pre-recorded) are neutral and appropriate.
- Staff and pupils should ensure personal information and/or, inappropriate or unsuitable personal items are not visible.
- Where possible, other household members should not be in the background or shot; if this unavoidable, they should follow appropriate language and behaviour expectations.
- If live streaming, staff will mute and/or disable pupils' videos and microphones, as required.

For further details of how Foreland Fields School promotes an online safety ethos, please see the 'Online Safety policy'.
